

William Loscomb, most frequently referred to as “Buddy,” is a native of Oxford, Maryland and has spent the majority of his life on the Eastern Shore. After being “educated at Oxford” (Oxford Elementary School), he graduated from Easton High School. He served in the U.S. Coast Guard from 1968 to 1974 both on active duty and the active Coast Guard Reserves before returning to Talbot County. He attended Chesapeake College where he received an Associates Degree in Business Administration.

Buddy has helped operate a family boatyard business, worked for local newspapers in both editorial and sales, and has worked as a full-time real estate agent. For the past 32 years he, and his wife Judi, have owned and operated Laser Letters, Inc. a commercial design and print business located in downtown Easton.

Bud has three children: Bill, who lives in Johnson Vermont with his wife, Meg; Nina Jacobs resides in Salisbury Maryland with husband Mike Jacobs; and Sarah and her husband Brad Evans live in Baltimore, Maryland; and five grandchildren, Ella Loscomb (20); Sean (17) and Taylor Jacobs (15); Hunter and Jack Evans ages 3 and 1 year.

Bud likes music, particularly jazz and sports, particularly baseball and sailing. He also holds a 100 ton Merchant Mariner Credential, (Captain’s License) and works during Summer months at The Inn at Perry Cabin in St. Michaels where he is a sail and power boat captain and sailing instructor.

Buddy is a 2001 graduate of Shore Leadership and is currently a Talbot Chamber Ambassador. He is a member of Tidewater Rotary, and has volunteered his time for a number organizations like the Memorial Hospital Foundation, Talbot County Chamber of Commerce, and Festival of Trees.